

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

Lauren Howie Laur,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No. 14-cv-27

City of Mequon, et al,

Defendant.

FINAL PRE-TRIAL REPORT

In accordance with the Court's Final Pretrial Order dated June 8, 2015 the Parties submit the following final pretrial report in anticipation of the trial scheduled for June 29, 2015 – July 3, 2015.

1. Summary Statement of Facts

On February 25, 2011 Lauren Howie Laur was driving home from Boulder Junction Restaurant in Brookfield WI. Lauren had recently consumed some cocktails with her cousin. Lauren was upset because her close friend and her grandfather just passed away. Lauren was apparently exhausted from the events and may have dozed off while driving. She realized that she might have hit a snow bank so she pulled off the road, stopping in the gas station in Mequon WI to determine if there was any damage to her car.

As Lauren was observing her car Mequon Police officers arrived. Two of those officers were Officer Gaidish and Krantz. They indicated they received a call regarding her driving. They asked Lauren to submit to field sobriety tests, which she complied with and which she passed. They asked her a series of questions regarding her identity and the events of the evening leading up to their dispatch to the gas station. She answered all the questions. The officers did not observe any damage to Lauren's car. Officer Gaidish told Lauren he did not feel comfortable with her driving at that time and asked her to take a seat in the back of his squad. She was placed in the back of his squad with officers guns on the seat. Lauren was not free to leave. Officers Krantz and Gaidish told Lauren that her car would be towed even though there was no damage but before they do it they would search it for guns and drugs. They asked Lauren if she had any guns or dugs in the car in which she responded: "yes, a bit of weed." They proceeded to tear about her car discovering " a bit of weed" in a camel cigarette package. The approximate street value of the "weed" was under ten dollars.

Officer Gaidish placed Lauren under arrest and proceed to take her to St. Mary's Hospital for a blood draw. After her blood was drawn at St. Mary's Hospital, Lauren was transported to Mequon Police Department for booking. Lauren was finger printed and asked the standard booking questions for purposes of identification. Those questions include whether or not she had scars, cuts or tattoos.

Officer Kranz finger printed Lauren but never documented the cuts on her hands. She indicated she had scars on her face, feet and hands, cuts on her hands and tattoos on the lower portion of her right breast and rib cage and a tattoo in her pelvis/ pubic region. As Lauren was standing by Officer Krantz she pointed to the area in which the tattoos were located and he asked to photograph them. Lauren was required to remove part of her blouse, move her bra and breast for the tattoo to be viewed and photographed. Then she was required to lower her pants and underwear for the tattoo in the pubic region to be viewed and photographed. There were no photographs taken of the scars on her hands, face or feet. During this photographing, the door of the room was left open for passer by to look in.

Officer Gaidish was on the phone with the Departments Dispatcher Barbara who was working the front desk. She did not come to assist in the photographing of Lauren. There was another female officer also working that evening that was not assist in taking the photos of Lauren.

After the photos were taken and the balance of the booking information completed, Officer Gaidish allowed Lauren to be released to Laurens mother, Mary Kay Howie. Ms. Howie came to pick up Lauren at the Mequon Police station at about 4:30 am on February 26, 2011. She told Barbara the dispatcher she was there to pick up her daughter Lauren. Ms. Howie asked Officer Gaidish some questions about drinking. Ms. Howie noticed Officer Gaidish kept touching Laurens arm and shoulder. As Ms. Howie and Lauren were ready to leave Officer Gaidish "cupped" Laurens hands with his and commented that it was a shame they had to meet like that. A short time later Officer Gaidish showed up a Laurens work. And soon thereafter, Officer Gaidish killed himself. Lauren was charged with a misdemeanor possession of marijuana resulting in a sentence of probation and expungement. Lauren was unlawfully searched in violation of 42 USC 1983 and SS 968.255 et seq. The City of Mequon engaged in deficient Hiring Practices and Policies – Monell Liability and failed to train, supervise and discipline and the City of Mequon has a custom of condoning unlawful, unreasonable and outrageous conduct and the violation of Lauren's rights.
